HOME FUNERAL$995.00

Home funerals are a way for families to honor their family member by having a ceremony at home. Home funerals can come in many forms. Some choose to keep their loved one at home for a short amount of time right after death for immediate family and close friends to come by to show their respects. Other families choose to create a special setting and have a more organized ceremony at home.

We assist families in setting up and facilitating home funerals, and we also offer to simply guide them should they want to facilitate the service and care themselves. Home funerals can be a very beautiful and special way for families to have time with their loved one in the comfort of their own home.
